K&L Gates Adds Real Estate Special Counsel in Brisbane

TD

NEWS ADVISORY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE 7 March, 2014

Brisbane - The Brisbane office of global law firm K&L Gates has added Mark Foy as a special counsel in the real estate practice area. Foy joins the firm from Dibbs Barker.

Foy advises on many aspects of complex real estate projects and transactions. He has extensive experience advising on community title and land subdivisions, the sale and purchase of developed commercial real estate, retail centres, and industrial properties, and related due diligence. He has a special interest in real estate projects and retail centres and has completed significant work advising clients on industrial, retail, and commercial leasing transactions.

Nick Nichola, K&L Gates' Managing Partner, Australia, said: "We welcome Mark to our established and experienced real estate practice in Australia. He brings with him more than 20 years of experience that spans real estate projects and transactions in industrial, retail centres, and commercial office space. I am delighted to welcome him to our firm."

Foy previously worked with one of Australia's largest retailers, advising on all real estate procurement, divestment, and management nationally.

K&L Gates practices out of 48 fully integrated offices located in the United States, Asia, Australia, Europe, the Middle East and South America and represents leading global corporations, growth and middle-market companies, capital markets participants and entrepreneurs in every major industry group as well as public sector entities, educational institutions, philanthropic organizations and individuals.
