TD

1World Direct Ltd has moved forward to provide its customers with a fully-developed and operational eWallet and pre-paid debit card program, both co-branded and private labeled.

This agreement with TAP enables 1World Direct Ltd to be an international solution as a global card services and transaction facilitator for Network Marketing Companies, providing a two-way, pay-in and pay-out international solution which costs the merchant very little and lowers overall banking costs for distributors.

In greater Asia, this simplifies payroll for governments, merchants, temporary or permanent staffing companies and non-profits with geographically diverse outreach.

It gives the "Unbanked" population 100% approval for applicants for virtual account and optional debit card as long as they have valid government-issued photo identification.

These cards enable shopping or online bill-payments and eliminate money order fees, the cost of postage, Western Union fees, and check cashing fees.

W Technology is dedicated to open up global opportunities and welcomes this new development with our newly-signed JV partner, 1World Direct Ltd Creating border-less streams of business and rewards to our shareholders is our corporate mission as a global marketing company.

About W Technologies, IncW Technologies, Inc, whose stock is publicly traded under the symbol [PINKSHEETS: WTCG], is a diversified holding company with the mission to develop, manage and finance emerging companies.

W Tech will be involved in the development of new social media and digital advertising technologies, on-line shopping and payment solutions, new environmentally-safe oil and gas recovery technologies, new clean water technologies, financial services involving residential and commercial real estate and other emerging markets.

The company expects to bring a paradigm shift in the use of these new technologies in the respective business sectors and to develop new methods to finance its affiliated companies.
