Billionaire buses in AQUIS developer Tony Fung is one of the most down-to-earth billionaires on the planet. There are no airs and graces about the Hong Kong tycoon. Last Saturday he flew into Cairns on a Virgin Australia flight from Brisbane and not in his new Boeing 757 corporate jet. Accompanied by a small entourage of about six people, he also took his own luggage to an awaiting Toyota minibus, not a flash luxury limousine.

Club's charity play THE Northern Beaches Rugby Union Club has held a Ladies Day as part of its commitment to the community. Club president Nathan Crane said during the A-grade fixture against Wanderers, the team played in limited edition pink jerseys later auctioned off with $4000 from the auction and home game gate takings donated to the White Ribbon organisation supporting awareness and prevention of domestic violence and Ruth's Women's Shelter here in Cairns. The club now has 56 players based at its home ground at the Wattle St fields, Yorkeys Knob.

DeLacy tells a tale KEITH DeLacy will take Cairns Chamber of Commerce members on his journey from being a miner, a tobacco farmer, a newsagency proprietor, college principal and a consultant through to politics as Member for Cairns and State Treasurer to Queensland president and national director of the Australian Institute of Company Directors. He is a director of the Reef Hotel Casino and Queensland Energy Resources and chairman of a consortium developing a $2 billion agricultural project on the Gilbert River system. He will outline all at the chamber's lunch next Tuesday.

Holden sales rev up HOLDEN is on a roll with record sales in June and continuing growth last month. Sales of 12,332 sales were up 17.6 per cent in June, with the VF Commodore leading the sales charge. Ireland Holden in Cairns was named the number one regional Holden dealer in the country for June with 109 sales. Ireland Holden dealer-principal Richard Ireland says it was a fitting finale to their successful four day sale and Sale Of Origin campaigns during the Rugby League Origin series.
