The Leader yesterday broke the news that Everich International has proposed building a multimillion-dollar luxury hotel in Tamworth's CBD.

The company, which purchased the Woolworths supermarket development for $30 million earlier in the year, intends to invest heavily in Tamworth.

Ray White Project Marketing selling principal Andrew Schmidt said he had been contacted by "a number" of property owners within hours of the story breaking.

"We've received some interest as a result of the (story) from people who believe they have a potentially suitable location," he said.

Mr Schmidt said he believed Tamworth was a thriving regional city that could easily accommodate a five-star hotel.
