The contracts, valued in total at over US$17 million, have been awarded by a US real estate developer and a Chinese theme park operator.

These two contracts continue to show that the company's subsidiary, Dynamic Attractions, is developing media based attractions that are appealing to a wide range of customers around the world.

The two contracts will largely be executed within the next eighteen months.

"The sale of our unique flying theater continues to gather momentum as we have now sold eight around the world," said Guy Nelson, Empire's Chief Executive Officer.

"Our first flying theater will be open to the public later this month in China, and I look forward to the reviews of the guest satisfaction from this experience.

About Empire Industries Ltd Empire Industries Ltd manufactures specialized engineered products and sells these products domestically and in select international export markets.
