☑ Dubai Biodiesel Maker Looks Beyond Fast-Food Partner for Growth

WSJ Blogs, 18:46, 6 January 2014, 476 words, Rory Jones, (English) Karl Feilder reckons it was a simple sell to McDonald's Corporation, the world's largest fast-food company. He would recycle the vegetable oil used to cook their fries, convert it and create biodiesel to serve their trucks that deliver to ...
